captures the pain felt by him after discovering that his partner has been cheating on him for some time.

Apparently, the two are bound by law, considering the singer mentioning that they vowed to each other; however, he is left disappointed that his partner could defy their vows and cheat.

Love Hurts. For Derwena de Caro, songstress, female icon, teenage dream, success brought drugs, alcohol and a philandering boyfriend. It also brought wealth, fame and a stalker, or so she claimed. And that's where I came in, to investigate the identity of the stalker, little realising that the trail would lead to murder and a scandal that would make the newspaper headlines for months on end. Love Hurts. For me, Samantha Smith, Enquiry Agent, love arrived at the end of a fist. First, I had to contend with an alcoholic mother, who took her frustrations out on me throughout my childhood, then my husband, Dan, who regarded domestic violence as an integral part of marriage. But I survived. I obtained a divorce, kept my sense of humour and retained an air of optimism. I established my business and gained the respect of my peers. However, I was not

A teen at boarding school grapples with life, love, and rugby in this unforgettable novel that is “ alternately hilarious and painful, awkward and enlightening ” (Publishers Weekly, starred review). Ryan Dean West is a fourteen-year-old junior at a boarding school for rich kids. He ’ s living in Opportunity Hall, the dorm for troublemakers, and rooming with the biggest bully on the rugby team. And he ’ s madly in love with his best friend Annie, who thinks of him as a little boy. Ryan Dean manages to survive life ’ s complications with the help of his sense of humor, rugby buddies, and his penchant for doodling comics. But when the unthinkable happens, he has to figure out how to hold on to what ’ s important, even when it feels like everything has fallen apart. Filled with hand-drawn infographics
