There's more I want to say about Katie Grimes' Christ Divided: Antiblackness as Corporate Vice. (See yesterday's posting for my initial comments about this book). I think Katie was likely working on the book prior to the election of Donald Trump, but in so many ways, it is now a prophetic (as in prescient) statement about the deep racism inhabiting the body of American culture and its body politic — inhabiting white bodies, such that a majority of U.S. white Christians voted for the moral ...
